On May 28, 1928, the respondent was ordered within 15 days to execute and maintain a reasonable bond in the form and amount required by the Secretary of Agriculture to suitable trustees to secure the performance of his obligations incurred on that market; and that he be suspended as a dealer unless and until he executes a bond in accordance with the terms of the order.

On May 28, 1928, the respondent was ordered within 15 days to execute and thereafter maintain a reasonable bond in the form and amount required by the Secretary of Agriculture to suitable trustees to secure the performance of its obligations incurred as such dealer and file with the Secretary of Agriculture a fully executed copy of such bond.

Docket No. 192.—In re Jack Lee Live Stock Commission Co., market agency and dealer, Union Stockyards, Ogden, Utah. Notice of inquiry issued April 15, 1927, alleging that the respondent was insolvent. Docket No. 207.—In re Wertheimer & Degen v. Union Stockyards Co. of Omaha (Ltd.), Omaha, Nebr. On August 22, 1927, Wertheimer & Degen, a dealer at the Union Stockyards, Omaha, Nebr., filed a complaint alleging unjustly discriminatory yardage charges made by the Union Stockyards Co. of Omaha (Ltd.). A hearing was held on January 10, 1928, and briefs were filed later. The Secretary, on May 4, 1928, dismissed the case because the evidence did not sustain the allegation of the complaint, and he further found that the complainant was not entitled to an award of damages.

Docket No. 246.—In re Chas. A. Oss and others who are registered and doing business under the packers and stockyards act, as market agencies, at the Union Stockyards, South Omaha, Nebr. Inquiry issued November 1, 1927, and was amended later to include certain dealers. It alleged unfair and unjustly discriminatory practices and devices in connection with the buying and selling of livestock in commerce at the Union Stockyards, South Omaha, Nebr. A hearing was held, beginning January 11, 1928, and arguments were made before the Secretary on May 10, 1928. On May 21, 1928, the Secretary found and concluded that the respondents had engaged in and used unfair and unjustly discriminatory practices and devices, both individually and in concert. At a conference with representatives of the respondents, he was led to believe that they would do their utmost to cause the course of normal trading to be resumed immediately and continued. Acting on this belief, on May 21, 1928, he ordered that the case remain open until he deems further action advisable.
